To: 50th Anniversary Celebration Planning Committee Members: We need to change the date, place and time for our July meeting. Which date is better: Saturday, July 18 or Saturday, July 25? Would you prefer to meet at Inky's on North Detroit Avenue or the Elbo Room on W. Alexis Road? And, how does 5PM sound? Please reply on THIS post so I know which date is better and which restaurant you prefer! Thanks! Evelyn Kelly Kortas Mohr I can't promise that I could make either of those. I am usually gone most weekends.

Evelyn Powers First of all, the very first Planning meeting was held at The Mule's Diner, a Bedford Township restaurant. Secondly, tons of us on this Website had lots of fun talking about our favorite pizza and Italian restaurants growing up. Hands down, Inky's won. Gene...I am more than familiar with Giant Oak. Any other complaints from people who aren't even helping with this Event???

Evelyn Powers Gene...I know this will sound nitpicky, but, because there are actual Class Reunions being held that same, exact weekend, this particular Event is being, officially, referred to as "Bedford 50TH Anniversary Celebration," in honor of the "new" High School. That said, ALL Bedford Alumni have ALWAYS been invited to participate in this from Day One, even those who graduated in 1959 (maybe).

Gene Stock Hi Evelyn Powers.....I think that many BHS grads will attend the celebration weekend events, even if they graduated prior to the opening in 1965.....I know that I will attend along with many of my classmates. We are all very proud to be called Bedford Kicking Mules!

Evelyn Powers Those of us who grew up in Temperance (also known as Temprance), used to call ourselves "Kickin' Mules," without the "g." And, truth be told, we loved those of you in the Classes of 1963, 1964, and 1965 a lot!

Someone, maybe Sandy Kraine, or you, need to immediately update the Wikipedia page for Bedford as there are many errors, incomplete information and someone felt they needed to "update" the page with the incident that happened at our "new" football stadium, if you get my drift. That page is, actually, a really poor representation of our school!

LoisJean Kinney I understand that this 50th Anniversary is the celebration of the school building, but it is misleading. Bedford High School is much more than 50 years old as an organization. I believe the first graduating class from Bedford High School was around 1947.

Evelyn Powers LoisJean...As the article (above) indicates, yes, this is the "50th Anniversary Celebration" of the so called "new" high school on Jackman Road, which opened its doors in September of 1965, my senior year. We have also spoken about the so called "old" high school on Douglas Road which, yes, dates back to approximately 1947, with the last graduating class in 1965. Thanks for writing!
